Ritchie Says CD Radios Are Missing From Sector HQ

Alex Ritchie, Andover's Civil Defense communications director, said late yesterday that he doubts whether the CD sector headquarters in Tewksbury can be opened for the planned test early next week.

Ritchie and his volunteer communications personnel had planned to activate the sector control station May 3, as part of the nationwide CD tests.

However, he said that so much radio equipment has been taken from the Tewksbury location that it would now be necessary to move Andover's radio equipment up there.

This is in direct contradiction to a directive he received in July of 1959, in which the state CD office stated that the sector quarters "would remain intact and can be placed in operation with a minimum loss of time".

Ritchie said the only working piece of radio equipment at the sector quarters, located at the state hospital in Tewksbury, is a transmitter that can be used only between the sector and area control stations - but it can't be used for amateur purposes. Thus, he continued, there is no way for sector headquarters to communicate with any of the cities and towns only with headquarters. Two

A public hearing will be held next Thursday night at 8 o'clock, when officials of the Country Club Development Corp. will explain details of the proposed 225-acre country club in West Andover.

A decision to hold the hearing came Wednesday morning at a meeting of top town officials with representatives of the developers.

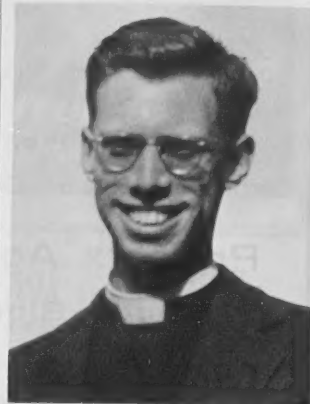

The country club, including a 27-hole golf course, would be located in the heart of undeveloped residential land bounded generally by Argilla rd., Blood rd., the high power lines and Lovejoy rd. Access to the grounds and the $775,000 clubhouse would be from Lovejoy rd.

First announcement of the proposed came in the Townsman of March 31, when it was revealed that options were being sought on land in the area.

Real Estate man Ralph Kimball indicated this week that five parcels have been taken under option,

Ballot-Counting Law Held Up

A proposed state law that would prohibit towns from counting ballots until after the polls close is still held up in committee, according to Rep. Arthur Williams of Andover.

Mr. Williams said the bill, already approved by the House of Representatives and the Senate, must come up again in the final "enactment" stage. He said there is little doubt that the House will again approve the measure, but explained that the Senate could possibly "kill" the measure by removing the "enactment" clause.

The bill would require that towns as well as cities, count ballots only after the polls are closed.

Town clerks, including Andover's George Winslow, point out in opposition that this would add to the cost of election processes. Additional personnel would be needed after the polls close, Winslow has indicated, but the same number of workers would be required during the voting hours. Thus, the town would be forced to pay for the extra help in the evening, and to work much later in the night before completing the tabulation.

Troop 32 Kept Busy This Winter

Troop 32, Intermediate Girl Scouts of the West School Fifth Grade, have been busy the past three months under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Warwick and Mrs. Charles Gaunt.

They are working to complete their Second Class requirements, therefore some of the programs have been very interesting.

February was International friendship Month and Feb. 15, Mrs. Robert Hooson spoke to the girls about her native Oslo in Norway. She wore her wedding dress, brought pictures, told the Scouts about her schooling, customs, sports and answered their many questions.

March was full of activity. The Troop sold almost 600 boxes of cookies and all but two attended the Parent-Daughter Banquet held at Phillips Academy. The girls chose Scotland as their country for the International Theme and Gwen Warwick was dressed in the traditional costumes of the Scotch dancers. The entire Troop did a Western Square Dance coached by Mrs. James Stewart.

In April the Troop made 50 decorated candy cups for the Easter trays at Burke Hospital.

PERSONAL

Dr. and Mrs. William Wagenbach and their family enjoyed several days last week in a sight seeing visit to Quebec, Canada.

BREAKING THE SIX-DIGIT BARRIER $100,000.00

We thought last week's "over the top" announcement would be the climax and end of our Building Fund series. But we did not know our own place in the loyalties of the community we endeavor to serve. We regret our failure to see heights beyond those which we had set.

Far exceeding our own great expectations, the CO-OP Building Fund has broken the six-digit barrier. Without fanfare, hoopla or pressure of any kind, it now exceeds a tenth of a million dollars!

Is this not an example of remarkable confidence in the stability of our Main Street and the soundness of the CO-OP as one of Andover's most progressive business enterprises — an enterprise that embraces a large and loyal segment of this community?

10th Anniversary Party Planned By Newcomers

The Newcomers' Club of Andover will celebrate its 10th anniversary Saturday night, April 30, with a Smorgasbord and dance at the High School Cafeteria. The festivities will get underway promptly at 7.

The Newcomers' Club has had a memorable record of achievement during this time, due in a large part to the efforts and enthusiasm of its founder and honorary chairman, Mrs. H. Allison Morse of Foster cir. Ten years ago this month Mrs. Morse conceived the idea of forming an informal club where persons moving into town might have the opportunity to meet people in similar circumstances. This idea soon became a reality and with a nucleus of 30 married housewives and mothers, the club flourished beyond all expectations. There are now about 200 current members and an alumnae list of 800. At the last membership meeting, there was representation from 37 different states and three foreign countries. A member usually remains in the group for a term of two years, at the end of which time she has so many community commitments and new friends that she gives up her membership to another newcomer. Mrs. John Gearin, chairman of the Decorating Committee, is working hard with her committee to make this a memorable occasion. Mrs. Luis Salazar, president, reports that ticket reservations are coming in rapidly and anyone wishing to attend this event should get in touch with the treasurer, Mrs. Louis Anderson, 26 Morton st.

Mrs. Allyn B. Stillman of Gould rd. and Mrs. Allyn B. Sears of Lowell st., co-chairmen of the Ticket Committee, have endeavored to have their committees call every current member and every alumna of the Club. However, the few remaining tickets are in the hands of Mrs. Anderson.

Juanita Cansino and her dance group will provide the entertainment.

PLAN TO ATTEND WELLESLEY OCCASION

WHEN THE SUBJECT IS REAL ESTATE

Yes, people ARE talking about Multiple Listing Service.

Time was when the purchase of a home or the hoped-for sale of a house presented the aspects of an ordeal. Advertising, "spreading the word around" and personal associations were some of the methods employed in starting the wheels to turning. The result was wasted hours, lost motion . . . delays and often disappointment. Then the M.L.S. concept was developed and a new era of real estate representation was born.

Today, one telephone call to the Realtor of your choice puts a large (50 offices) staff of experienced real estate people to work for you. Years upon years of solid experience in every problem is at your disposal . . . working for you. Buying or selling . . . Multiple Listing Service is the quickest surest way of insuring prompt results to the satisfaction of all parties. No wonder people are saying nice things about M.L.S.!

Including land belonging to the Robert Stone Co., Harry Axelrod, the Ruggiero family and Mabel Griffin.

The options will be exercised if the town votes to re-zone the area for the country club purpose only.

Following the hearing next Thursday night, it is expected that the Selectmen will decide whether to call the required special town meeting or not.

If this is done and the town's action is affirmative, Mr. Kimball has explained that work will get underway at once.

Although the over-all construction work may take a year, he said swimming pools, tennis courts and other facilities will be installed as quickly as possible.

Kimball described the Club as being very similar to others that the parent corporation has in operation in the country.

The firm plans eventually to have 25 country clubs across the nation. Membership in one is recognized in the others.

Directing the golf activities for the corporation is Sammy Sneed, one of the nation's most prominent golfers.

Kimball said a local advisory board of directors would be established, from the club's membership.

It is anticipated that the family memberships may reach 1,000, he indicated. Full facilities will be available for all members of the family, he stressed.

European Students Study At Raytheon

Students from five NATO countries, Belgium, France, West Germany, Italy, and the Netherlands, recently began the first phase of an indoctrination program that will transfer technical information on the HAWK System to NATO countries which may be involved in the manufacture of the HAWK Guided Missile System in Europe. Students, most of whom are engineering graduates drawn from the ranks of industrial and staff personnel, are attending the course as representatives of their country. Their stay in this country varies from four to six weeks depending upon the length of the course they are taking. The majority of the group has been staying at the Shawsheen Manor during this period.

Operating within the framework of Andover's NATO Support Department, the course has been designed to familiarize these key personnel with the functional operation of all major items and integrated system operation. To aid them in their understanding, NATO personnel are given the opportunity to converse directly with Raytheon engineers.

Instruction has been facilitated by the fact that students possess considerable background in the manufacture of such electronic items as radar and fire control systems.

Included as an important feature of the course is a visit to the operational battery site in West Andover where students get a chance to see tactics preparatory to actual firing, as well as examine in detail the hardware comprising the HAWK battery. Additional tours covering the production of equipment here at Andover as well as at Waltham are also provided. Recently the NATO Support Department transferred from the Andover Plant to the Wood Mill in Lawrence.

Applications For Sgt. Examination

Applications may now be made by permanent officers in the police department who wish to take the examination for sergeant.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff said the civil service exam will be given later this year, with the expectation that an appointment will be made by late summer when Sgt. William R. Hickey retires.

Notice of the exam, outlining qualifications, will be posted as soon as the state decides on dates for the written portion of the test. They will be made to the manager, for referral to the state.

No final date for accepting applications has been set yet, he said, but this will be determined by the state.

Men who have been permanent members of the force for one year by the examination date will be eligible.

Guild Planning Annual Event

St. Augustine's School Guild will hold its annual mother-daughter Communion breakfast Sunday in the School hall, immediately following the 8 a.m. Mass.

The Committee in charge includes Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Robert Jordan, co-chairmen; Mrs. William Dolan, Mrs. James Prout, Mrs. Daniel Powers, Mrs. James Doherty, Mrs. Robert Rohnstock and Mrs. George Connolly.

MRS. EASTHAM ELECTED BY CHURCH WOMEN

Mrs. Edwin S. Anderson of Medford was re-elected president of the Department of United Church Women of the Massachusetts Council of Churches at its 30th annual meeting April 21 in Framingham. Also elected was Mrs. James S. Eastham of Andover, recording secretary.

United Fund Adds Member

Following a favorable report from the Admissions Committee, the Directors of the United Fund voted admittance as a member agency to the Medical Research Program of the National Foundation for Medical Education. In admitting this agency as a member, the directors feel that the United Fund now offers to the public a balanced health, welfare and character-building program.

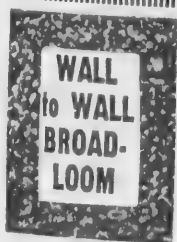

The Admissions Committee in making its study found that approximately 29.7 percent of the funds raised by major national health agencies which conducted substantial research programs have gone to medical research as a whole. For these principal health agencies, this 29.7 percent would total about $34,000,000 nationally. This is roughly the current scale of medical research spending which the givers in all American communities, including Greater Lawrence, indicated their willingness to support in 1958. It has not been ascertained exactly what part of the $34,000,000 was devoted to basic research. The best available medical testimony is to the effect that about one-third of total research funds should go to basic medical research but there is little evidence to indicate that anywhere near this amount is being spent in this manner, the directors stated.

The Committee further reported that a quota for the Medical Research program would be based on 10 percent of the total raised by the principal national health agencies in this country. The meeting of this quota through United Funds would nationally produce a sum sufficient to conduct a sound basic research program in the nation's medical schools and research institutions. It would also insure the United Fund givers that they are participating in a substantial and worthwhile manner in the kind of basic research program that the country needs and everyone

The Medical Research Program is a voluntary national program to provide funds for the major medical research facilities of this country solely for basic unrestricted research whose ultimate purpose is to find the cure for any and all diseases. This program has been approved by the Association of American Medical Colleges and the American Medical Association.

Serving on the United Fund Admissions Committee were William T. Lucey of Andover, business manager of the Eagle-Tribune, chairman; Ralph D. Arivella, executive vice president, Greater Lawrence-Haverhill Central Labor Council; Emil J. Ganem, M.D.; Philip K. Allen of Andover, director of Station WGBH-TV; and Wallace E. EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Liquor License Decision

One of the most difficult decisions to face the Selectmen in years will confront the Board when it endeavors to issue a package store license, following receipt of the official census report.

There is no doubt that one license will be available, as the population merely needs to jump over the 15,000 mark.

There are many applicants, with several locations specified.

Because there have been no licenses available for a long time, there is little precedent for the issuance — some other communities upgrade the oldest limited package store for example, as a matter of policy.

There can be little dependence on any such formula here, however, because the granting of a license comes so infrequently as to make precedent of little consequence.

We suspect that the heaviest of political pressures will be used, as the several applicants maneuver for position.

It is to be hoped that the Selectmen can determine a course of action that is acceptable, so that the issuance of the license will not become a matter of bitter dispute. There is certain to be some rancor, for the unsuccessful applicants must certainly feel disappointed. But the five Selectmen should make every effort to keep that feeling from boiling up into a full-fledged quarrel.

Country Club Welcome

The announcement this week that the proposed country club venture in West Andover will become a reality, if zoning changes are accomplished, should be welcome by a substantial segment of the population.

The area involved is in a residential section — and should be gratifying to those who shudder at thoughts of all that open land turned into sub-divisions.

Those who like to play golf should also be pleased, for this will be yet another pleasant site for that activity.

The town should be delighted, for the tax income will presumably be substantial.

As the town boards meet later this week, and in public hearing later, we can conceive of little opposition to the project.

Results Are Pleasing

The cooperative effort between merchants and the town, to clean up the streets for each weekend, is certainly worthwhile.

The plan is simple, thus workable. Merchants sweep the sidewalks in front of their stores Friday and Saturday nights — and the town undertakes to pick up the litter at night.

Thus the streets look well kept for the weekends, especially Sundays.

This is a fine indication of a friendly spirit between merchants and municipality. Both are to be congratulated for their efforts.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — April, 1910

Harry Ramsdell will deliver the Memorial Day oration May 30 at North Reading.

Mrs. Robert Taylor was a delegate at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Degree of Honor held in Boston last week.

The gas tank, which the Lawrence Gas Co. has been building on Railroad st., is now complete and it is thought that it will be filled in a few days. The tank will probably be used as an emergency holder at present, and will service Andover and Ballardvale.

Bertram S. Stott of Andover was one of the members of the evening class at Lowell Textile School, which was graduated recently.

Thieves entered the office of the Cross Coal Co. near the coal pocket on Railroad st. last night and took about $3 in cash, some of which belonged to Miss Maria Fairweather, who is employed there.

Andover is to have another new and handsome building on Main st. Henry W. Barnard, the owner of property on Main st., from the corner of Park st., to the Valpey Market is having plans made for the immediate construction of a modern brick building, with 100 feet frontage and covering the entire tract.

25 Years Ago — April, 1935

The spring meeting of the Women's Department of the Andover District of the Massachusetts

Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was held in West Parish Church yesterday. Mrs. Roy H. Bradford was elected president.

The North District School will remain open, at least until the end of the school year. The School Committee made its decision after hearing from parents of youngsters attending the school.

Still another petition has been started for a special town meeting — this one with five articles. One would have the town vote to give a franchise to another bus company to operate between Shawsheen Square and Main st. business section, with a five-cent fare. The Eastern Mass. recently declined to reduce its fare from 10 cents, following a vote at the annual town meeting. Another article seeks to have the town buy the much-disputed plot in Shawsheen and turn it into a park.

"Three Outs" in quick succession were scored Monday afternoon by a sprinkler system in the Musgrove building. It first put out a fire in a basket of shavings in the third-floor quarters of the VFW. Then it put out of service the out-of-town cables of the telephone exchange on the floor below. Then, thirdly, it put out onto Main st., carrying a riot gun, Chief of Police George Dane. Someone, hearing the sprinkler alarm, told the chief it was the bank alarm.

The state is being asked to take over part of South Main st., at the Academy, where the grass plot juts out into Main st. Attention has been focused on this area for some time as a traffic hazard. The Academy has plans for a traffic island, with one-way traffic on each side, and will make these available to the state if it takes over the maintenance of the section.

Egg Tree Winners

The three judges who selected the final winners in the egg tree contest admitted that theirs was a difficult task, with so many attractive, amusing and clever entries. Mrs. Henry Sanborn, Mrs. Arthur Bliss and Mrs. Ralph Hill met Saturday afternoon, the day before Easter, at the Memorial Hall Library, and came to the following decisions: in the family group, first prize, Mrs. J. MacDougall, and Ruth; second prize, Mrs. Nelson, Karen, Kris and Mark; other first prize winners were Joan Galloway, Kathy O'Brien, Ellen Marshall, Betty Ann Connors and Nancy Newell. Second prizes went to Frank Rindone, Peter Synnisek, Susan Rolli. Honorable mentions were awarded Alice Daly and Jimmy Downes.

Prizes were announced during the special program held in the library Monday after Easter. Miss Lane told a story and showed two movies, "Hunter And The Forest" and "Surprise From The Ground."

Cardinals Have Party

On Wednesday morning, May 4, at 10 o'clock, all members of the Cardinal group are invited to their annual last-day-party, to be held in the library for all little people who have attended this group at any time during the season. Mothers are to remain in the room with the children. There will be stories, activity games and music, with light refreshments served.

The Robins group and the Ballardvale Littlest Listeners will have their final party programs the following week, at their usual hour.

Great Books

The reading for the Great Books meeting, to be held at the library Tuesday, May 10, is Freud's "General Introduction To Psychoanalysis."

Radiation Display

John Carter of the Andover Civil Defense will have an exhibit at the Memorial Hall Library on radiation, from May 1-14. He will be on hand Monday through Friday, 3 to 5, and 7 to 9 p.m. to answer any questions about the display.

Flower Arrangement

An unusual floral creation has been on view in the Memorial Hall Library during the past few days. Karl Haartz arranged his own composition "Desolation And Hope", using for his material a crystal bowl, silver plate, juniper branches and a single calla lily, all of which are peculiarly of Andover, including the locally grown calla, from an Andover greenhouse.

The impression to be gained from the arrangement differs with viewers, but gives one a feeling that in the midst of trials and sorrows, there is always hope.

Great Decisions

Anyone who has followed the progress of the Eastern Massachusetts division of the discussion series "Great Decisions...1960" may wish to know some of the overall recommendations made by the groups in matters of foreign policy. From the returns, 44% wished to increase defense spending, 33% wished to hold the line, and 10% voted for a decrease. Many commented that greater effort should be put toward disarmament, and the money saved spent on schools, urban renewal, etc. Over half favored increased economic aid, voting to increase U. S. contributions to development programs sponsored by the United Nations. Less than one fifth of the voters wished to "hold the line" on foreign aid budget. More than half wished to negotiate at all possible times with the Russians, and over half favored our demonstration of good faith. Less than one third took a cautious view, wishing to negotiate only on issues where mutual accommodation is possible. Six per cent wished to make no concessions at all. Other interesting voting showed that more than half wanted greater effort to close the missile gap, and to accept a disarmament program that can be policed; they also wished greater U. S. aid to underdeveloped countries, and to reduce trade barriers throughout the free world. They want expanded cultural exchange, closer cooperation with NATO allies, greater cooperation and sharing of technology with European allies, free elections as only basis of German reunification; but less than half wished entry of Red China into the U.N. Nearly all wished to enlarge aid to India, two thirds favored greatly increased technical assistance to the Middle East and Africa. The situation in Cuba brought forth a general suggestion that patience is necessary for the moment, and a little over half voted for increased inter-American cooperation, both economic and political. Nearly half favored our present "cool but correct" policy.

High School Lists Honor Roll

Eight students at the Senior High School attained high honors during the second marking period, according to lists released by Headmaster Lindsay J. March. Jean Groleau and Susan Slade, seniors; Virginia Jensen, Susan Kenny, Dorothy Miller, Margaret Williamson, juniors; and Virginia Perry and Janet Workman, sophomores, were listed as receiving high honors.

The honor roll follows:

Key Appointments To Be Made Soon

Several key appointments fact Town Manager Thomas E. Duff is the weeks ahead.

Sometime during the year, he will appoint a successor to Town Clerk George Winslow. An amount of money was appropriated at the town meeting to cover the salary of the appointee, who will work some time with the incumbent prior to the end of the year.

Also facing the manager is an appointment to the Planning Board and the Land Acquisition Committee. Those two posts were recently resigned by Donald G. Thompson.

Other appointments include the Conservation Commission, with possible four additional members, and the School Building Committee authorized at town meeting.

Later in the year, there will be one appointment to the post of sergeant in the police department, and possibly one permanent officer in that department.

Mr. Duff explained that a recent civil service exam for agent in the welfare department merely establishes a list for that office when it becomes vacant. He said Arthur W. Cole, the present agent, does not plan to terminate his employment.

The Selectmen also must grapple with two appointments to the Board of Appeals. This office is specifically placed under the appointing power of the Selectmen, and does not involve the manager.

The terms of member Edmund E. Hammond and Associate member Harry Sellars expire. The Board has not yet indicated whether it will reappoint the two men or name others to the Board.

Hospital Follies
Planned May 7

MRS. RICHARD E. BARTON

"Spectacular is the word for the scenery which will be seen in 'Follies of 1960 - Around the World in Eighty Minutes', according to Mrs. Richard E. Barton, general chairman. "The stage crew has been working out the most magnificent scenery ever used in a Follies production", she explained.

The annual musical variety show benefiting the Lawrence General Hospital is given annually by the Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association. One performance will be seen Saturday evening, May 7, at 9 o'clock at Tenney Memorial Auditorium, Methuen. All seats will be reserved and tickets are still available.

John Cole, technical director and chairman of the stage crew, is being assisted by the following: Harry Axelrod, Gordon Edgar, Hart Leavitt, Bill McKeown, Hugh Morse, Harold Nadler, Bill Stevens, Donald Thompson, Pete Wilson, Sid Zussman, Robbie Cole and Bill Cole.

Mrs. Hugh Morse, assistant technical director, is being assisted by the following committee members: Mrs. S. P. Parson, Mrs. J. Wright, Mrs. C. X. Larabee, Mrs. William Stevens, Mrs. Arlie Huff, Mrs. David Duncan, Miss Meredith Thiras, Miss Antoinette Thiras, Mrs. Brooks Whitehouse, Mrs. Frederick Stott, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Richard Marshall, Mrs. John Richards, Mrs. Robert Orchard, Mrs. Reagh Wetmore, Mrs. Joseph Dodge, Mrs. Ray Lamontagne, Miss Midge Harrison, Miss Ann Marie Orchard, Miss Carol Drake and Miss Ellen Marshall.

Pre-Alert Drill Planned In Schools

A pre-alert drill for all school children will be held at 10 a.m. May 3, in conjunction with the National Civil Defense "Operations Alert, 1960".

Lee E. Noyes, Civil Defense director here, said he is arranging for the youngsters to respond to an alert Tuesday morning, rather than during the afternoon when a public warning will be sounded.

The national activity will result in only limited participation here, Noyes said the warning signals will be sounded May 3, 4 and 5 at 2 p.m. with the all-clear at 2:30. Traffic will not be halted.

The town's sirens are at the West Parish School and atop Bancroft Hill at the reservoir. Industrial whistles and horns also are sounded, Noyes explained.

He indicated that the only Civil Defense crew to take active part will be the communications group, under Alex Ritchie. This organization will man the CD station at Tewksbury, he reported.

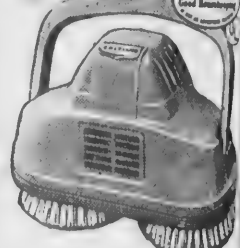

First aid groups, and auxiliary police and firefighters will not be summoned for the test, Noyes said. To do so, he explained, would work a hardship on the places that employ the men, as the test will be held in mid-afternoon.

On a state-wide basis, regular radio and television programs will be off the air May 3 for a half hour, 2-2:30, when special tests of CONELRAD frequencies, 64 and 1240, will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stowers and their son of Beech cir. spent the past week in Washington, D.C., and Cape Hatterus, N. C. They also spent several days on the Island of Ocracoke in that state. They report that the Cherry Blossoms were very beautiful.

League Officers At National Meeting

Mrs. Jerome Andrews Jr., president, and Mrs. Edward Flint, treasurer, of the League of Women Voters of Andover, are attending the 24th national convention of the League of Women Voters this week in St. Louis, Mo.

"40 years of a great idea" is the theme of this convention, as this is the 40th year since the founding of the League. Carrie Chapman Catt, leader of the woman suffrage organization, in an address in 1919, called for a "League of Women Voters to finish the fight and aid in reconstruction of the nation." The "fight" was for enactment of the 19th amendment to the federal Constitution to give full and equal suffrage to all women in the United States. "Reconstruction of the nation" referred, of course, to the post World War I period.

U. S. Foreign economic policies will be the subject of major discussion at this 24th national convention. Local and state Leagues throughout the country expressed foremost interest in this topic for study and action over the 1960-'62 period. Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Flint go as uninstructed delegates from Andover; but they go with the knowledge that the Andover League overwhelmingly endorsed the proposed agenda subject on relationships of United States and foreign economic policies.

The national budget of the League is met largely by pledges from local Leagues, which raise their money through dues and contributions. The latter come from individuals who value the public service the League renders the communities in working for a better informed electorate and more active participation by citizens in government at all levels.

There are over 1,000 local Leagues, in all 50 states, and the District of Columbia. There are about 127,000 members of the League of Women Voters of the United States.

The League of Women Voters stresses its non-partisanship. It does not support or oppose political parties or candidates. Afterimative study it may take a position on an issue provided there is a consensus among the membership. Then it supports or opposes specific legislation in accordance with that position. League members are encouraged to work in the party of their choice but are closely identified in the public mind with the work of the League. They may not be active workers in the parties while holding League office.

WILL DEDICATE FELLOWSHIP CHAPEL

May 8, at 7:30 p.m., the First Church and its friends are invited to the formal dedication of the new Pilgrim Fellowship Chapel.

Built entirely by the P. F. with help from interested friends, the Chapel will be a welcome addition to the worship life of the Church's young people. All are welcome at this formal dedication. A reception will follow in the upper Parish Hall.

Continue Work On Rogers Brook Job

Detailed work, involving bond counsel plus further engineering, is being undertaken on the Rogers Brook reconstruction project.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff indicated this week that legal requirements are being met, and proper documents submitted, to the legal counsel involved in any bond issue.

When this is done, he believes that the state will go forward rapidly with the preparation of specifications for possible bidders.
